San Antonio Convention News

The 65th annual SCMLA convention will be held at the Sheraton Gunter in San Antonio, Texas. Close to the border between Mexico and the United States, San Antonio offers a fitting venue for discussions that cross borders in the many fields that SCMLA members represent: languages, literatures, linguistics, cultural studies, theory and so on, and many sessions address this theme. While “borders,” this year’s theme, can represent current political debates on immigration, security, boundaries, and division, the theme also covers more expansive definitions. Not only do borders divide, but they can also unite and hinge together two separate areas or topics. They conjure up images of passage, embarkation, arrival, new challenges, and interchange, as well as blending, blurring, being “on edge,” “on the fringe,” and “in the margins,” to name only a few of the ways that borders affect us.

The department of English and Communication Arts and the department of Languages at St. Mary’s University as well as the department of Modern Languages and Literatures at the University of Texas-

San Antonio will host the gathering. Highlights will include the plenary address by Naomi Shihab Nye on Friday, November 7 at 5:45 p.m., entitled “Language as Gravity: We Have No Borders When We Read.” Nye has been a Lannan Fellow, a Guggenheim Fellow, and a Witter Bynner Fellow (Library of Congress). She is the author of 19 Varieties of Gazelle: Poems of the Middle East. Honeybee, a book of poetry for young adults, was published in March 2008. Arturo Madrid, the Murchison Distinguished Professor of Humanities at Trinity University, San Antonio, will give Thursday afternoon’s 6:00 keynote before the SCMLA Social, which starts at 7:00.

The Sheraton Gunter will provide space for 69 regular and allied sessions as well as 25 special sessions. Registration packets will arrive in late August or early September and will include hotel reservation information as well as the conference registration form that will allow you to reserve your space at receptions, breakfasts, luncheons, and socials. However, members will be able to register, pay dues, vote, and make hotel reservations on-line.

Find links and more information on how to pay by credit card on page 6 and on-line at www.ou.edu/scmla. If you would like to contact the Sheraton Gunter in San Antonio before you receive the registration information, call (888)-999-2089 and ask for the South Central Modern Language Association rate ($139 single & double.) You can make your hotel reservations online using www.ou.edu/scmla and clicking on Make Reservations at the Sheraton Gunter Hotel link on our main page.

We look forward to welcoming you to San Antonio and to a stimulating convention this year!

2008 San Antonio Plenary Speaker-Naomi Shihab Nye

Naomi Shihab Nye grew up in St. Louis, Jerusalem, and San Antonio and has traveled the United States and the world leading writing workshops and inspiring students. Her books of poetry include 19 Varieties of Gazelle: Poems of the Middle East, A Maze Me: Poems for Girls, Red Suitcase, Words Under the Words, Fuel and You & Yours. Her other works include prize-winning poetry anthologies for young readers, including This Same Sky, The Space Between Our Footstep, and Poems & Paintings from the Middle East. A book of poetry for young adults entitled Honeybee was published earlier this year.

Naomi Shihab Nye has been a Lannan Fellow, a Guggenheim Fellow, and a Witter Bynner Fellow (Library of Congress). She has received a Lavan Award from the Academy of American Poets, the Isabella Gardner Poetry Award, the Lee Bennett Hopkins Poetry Award, the Paterson Poetry Prize, four Pushcart Prizes, and numerous honors for her children's literature, including two Jane Addams Children's Book Awards. Her collection 19 Varieties of Gazelle was a finalist for the National Book Award. She is a regular columnist for Organica and poetry editor for The Texas Observer. Her work has been presented on National Public Radio's A Prairie Home Companion and The Writer's Almanac. She has been featured on two PBS poetry specials: The Language of Life with Bill Moyers and The United States of Poetry. She has also appeared on NOW with Bill Moyers.

Nye will give the Plenary Address at the SCMLA conference in San Antonio at the Gunter Hotel on Friday, November 7, 2008 at 5:45 p.m

Call for Special Sessions - Baton Rouge 2009

South Central Modern Language Association Call for Special Sessions - Baton Rouge, Louisiana 2009 Theme: "Continuity and Displacements"

The SCMLA invites Special Session proposals for its 66th annual convention in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, October 29 - 31, 2009 at the Hilton Baton Rouge Capitol Center. You may focus on the conference theme -- "Continuity and Displacements" -- but proposals on any topic are welcome.

No state felt the devastating effects of Hurricane Katrina more than Louisiana, especially in the city of New Orleans. Out of the destruction have come many changes, including displacements, diasporas, ruptures, and the erasure of communities and cultural elements. However, much rebuilding and picking up the pieces has also occurred, with those affected by the storm adapting to new circumstances in which they maintain continuities in their heritage and their lives. What happens to people and cultures also occurs in the parallel lives of literatures and languages, in which tradition and habit are struck by the storms of change and innovation and yet manage to survive, and even to prosper, by incorporating the new in the old. Come join us at SCMLA to consider our disciplines in light of the Louisiana experience.

To propose a Special Session, you must be an SCMLA member in good standing; to issue a Call for Papers, return this form to the SCMLA office by November 21, 2008 for posting in the Special Sessions Call for Papers section of the Winter 2008 Newsletter. We will continue to post "Calls" on our website as they are received. The "Due Date" indicates the date by which you would like to receive abstracts or papers for consideration; please keep the final proposal deadline (February 20, 2009) in mind when choosing a due date. Please note you may also submit proposals by email to scmla@ou.edu.

Return Call to: SCMLA, U of Oklahoma, 104 Fourth Street, Baker, B47 Norman, OK 73019-6410; Phone: (405) 325-6011; FAX: (405) 325-3720; Email: scmla@ou.edu

Upon receipt of the Call for Papers Form, you will be sent a Final Special Session Proposal Form, to be returned by February 20, 2009. Completed panels, whether or not they are listed in the Call for Papers, must be submitted on an SCMLA Special Session form by February 20, 2009. This Special Session form will include a detailed description of your panelists' papers. These proposal forms will be refereed by the SCMLA Program Committee. Organizers of Special Sessions accepted for Baton Rouge 2009 will be notified in March 2009.

Online Registration for San Antonio and Membership Payment

SAVE TIME, REGISTER FOR SAN ANTONIO 2008 AND PAY 2009 DUES ON-LINE

Beginning in July, you will be able to register for the San Antonio convention and pay your membership dues on-line.

You can pay for the following on-line via www.ou.edu/scmla:

San Antonio 2008

- Conference registration
- Conference meals including the Friday business luncheon, the Women's Caucus breakfast and the SCCEA breakfast

Calendar Year 2009

- 2009 Membership Dues

You will also be able to vote for new executive committee members. For a minimal credit card fee and processing fee, you will not have to wait for the pre-convention mailing to send a check to the SCMLA for 2008 conference registration and 2009 membership. Also, there will be a link to the convention hotel for you to make your on-line hotel room reservation.

If you would like to continue to pay as you have in the past, you will still have the option of pre-registering for San Antonio 2008 and paying 2009 dues by sending a check to the SCMLA offices at the U of Oklahoma. Hard copies of the conference registration form will be sent to paid members in August, and pre-convention registration will be accepted until October 6, 2008. Members will also receive a reminder email in July from the SCMLA office with instructions on how to register for San Antonio 2008 on-line.
